4: EXAM LANGUAGE ASSESSMENT CHECKLIST

EXAM LANGUAGE ASSESSMENT CHECKLIST

To pass the official EOI speaking exam you must demonstrate the assessment criteria and avoid making mistakes below the level. The Exam Language Assessment Checklist below illustrates the scope of language expected at C1 level.

Use the Inglés Málaga EOI C1 Building Blocks Guide as your reference guide for the language features required to achieve a passing grade: grammar, vocabulary, linkers & cohesive devices.

While preparing for your exam, practise using a variety of the structures and language features; it is neither possible nor necessary to use all of them.

The key is to avoid repeating the same structures. Candidates that do this usually fail because they don't demonstrate sufficient grammatical range to pass.

EXAM LANGUAGE ASSESSMENT CHECKLIST
Formal or Informal Register
1. Presents (verb patterns: ing, inf, B-inf)	9. Cohesive Devices (linking words): — Connectors: Add, contrast, reason, consequence, summarise, order, example — Conjunctions: neither/nor. at best/ at worst — Pronouns
2. Pasts (verb patterns + perfect)
3. Futures (verb patterns + perfect)
4. Conditionals: C0, C1, C2, C3, Mixed — Phrases: Whether or not, only when..., will we
5. Passives: — Basic: It was made — Adverb + reporting verb: It was recently reported that — Modal + Passive: It may be argued that...	10. Adverbial Linkers/phrases/adverbs
6. Inversions: — Negative trigger: UNC, not only...but also...,in no way — Inverted conditionals: C2, C3, Mixed — Modals: Should you...	11. Vocabulary: adjectives, phrasal verbs, set phrases: — Quantity: By and large ..., to a limited extend ... — Comparatives: by far the most..., no less...than... — Idiomatic expressions: when appropriate
7. The Cleft for emphasis: It is the..., What I...was...	12. Language Functions: modal verbs (MV), fixed phrases. Use as appropriate a) Advice, Suggestions, Recommendations b) Speculation, Possibility, Certainty c) Prohibition, Obligation d) Hedging / Softening Statements e) General Truths, Deduction & Inference f) Trends, Changes & Developments g) Justifying, Evaluating h) Regrets, Wishes, Desires
8. Question: Direct, indirect, tag, negative, rhetorical

6: COMPLETE MODEL MONOLOGUE

To emphasise the exam technique, this section provides a completed Monologue Prompt Card and a completed exam-ready monologue for you to learn from.

A: Completed Monologue Prompt Card

1. Read through the complete Monologue Prompt Card
2. Pay attention to how ideas are in bullet form
3. Pay attention to the wide range of structures connected to each idea
4. Consider alternative ways to organise the same exam question: you can lengthen or shorten your monologue depending on time and task demands.

EXAM QUESTION

Make an oral presentation about vegan diets and climate change. Use the following points to help you prepare:

- Plan-based diets and climate change
- Limitations of plant-based diets
- Responsibility of the government to encourage plan-based diets

Train with Inglés Málaga & Stand out from the crowd

Language learning opens doors, breaks down barriers and builds bridges. Inglés Málaga has years of experience successfully working in partnership with companies and individuals to develop fit-for-purpose learning environments which facilitate the learning process in a fun and practical way.

We partner with companies and HR departments to develop workshops designed to improve language skills, strengthen team dynamics, and enhance soft skills, such as critical thinking and creative problem-solving techniques.

We develop lesson plans to support trainers and teachers working with adults in commercial and educational environments.

We are trained examiners for both Cambridge English Assessment and Trinity College London, and we offer exam clinics to support your journey to success.

In our book, working collaboratively is not only more enjoyable but also more productive. Our door is always open - we're always happy to help!
